ACTIVE MEMORIES THROUGH DIALOGUE

The COVID-19 pandemic and confinement measures have caused confusion and upheavals in people's lives from multiple points of view. Heavy effects on young people have been observed in relation to the employment situation and mental health.

ACTMEM - Active memories project aims to actively involve young people to transform this shared memory of difficult times into force and resilience through sharing stories and experiences using innovative tools such as the storytelling technique.

The shared memories are shaping the individual and collective identities and represent a turning point in the lives of present generations.

ACTMEM will accompany the young people transforming this experience into an opportunity for the development of self-confidence and key competences, such as intercultural awareness and expression, sense of initiative, social and civic participation.

EVENT IN AREZZO - MARCH 13th-18th 2023

Sense of initiative, social and civic participation and intercultural awareness and expression are the main themes of this event!

In this week we will spend most of the time in Arezzo. Here, we will have the opportunity to experiment storytelling methodologies, share our experiences and talk about memory, through knowledge, activities, dialogue and comparisons.

Over the days we will have the opportunity to compare memory activities with theater activities and do many workshops on storytelling. We will then have the opportunity to visit the diary museum together and have fun with typical Italian lunches and dinners!
